1962, is repetitious. Furthermore, it is believed that the individual exiled groups in Miami definitely exaggerate the strength and scope of the activities of their counterparts in Cuba. Objective comments from people not directly affiliated with any particular group but active in underground operations substantiates this view.

In addition, recent information indicates that CIA has infiltrated a number of people into Cuba and that these individuals are possibly more active than the unsupported counter-revolutionary groups. ~~(S)~~ ~~(X)~~ (u)
